

JOSEPH HARRY AND
GENEVE TAYLOR PLUMMER

Joseph Harry Plummer was born October 3, 1908, at Daniel, son of Walter S. and Josephine B. Plummer. He helped on the family farm and attended the county schools. He trained under Maude May Babcock at the U. of U.

He is dean of students at Branch Agricultural College at Cedar City, Utah, and is Spanish professor and chairman of humanities. He married Geneve Taylor of Rexburg, Idaho, and they have three children: Marilyn and twin boys, Douglas and David.

843

JOSEPH HARRY AND
GENEVE TAYLOR PLUMMER

Joseph Harry Plummer was born October 3, 1908, at Daniel, son of Walter S. and Josephine B. Plummer. He helped on the family farm and attended the county schools. He trained under Maude May Babcock at the U. of U.

He is dean of students at Branch Agricultural College at Cedar City, Utah, and is Spanish professor and chairman of humanities. He married Geneve Taylor of Rexburg, Idaho, and they have three children: Marilyn and twin boys, Douglas and David.

843

JOSEPH HARRY AND
GENEVE TAYLOR PLUMMER

Joseph Harry Plummer was born October 3, 1908, at Daniel, son of Walter S. and Josephine B. Plummer. He helped on the family farm and attended the county schools. He trained under Maude May Babcock at the U. of U.

He is dean of students at Branch Agricultural College at Cedar City, Utah, and is Spanish professor and chairman of humanities. He married Geneve Taylor of Rexburg, Idaho, and they have three children: Marilyn and twin boys, Douglas and David.

843